

This was my first real sermon on a topic, rather than a short devotional or a sermon based on an experience like going to Ecuador. Rev. Mike Frese did most of the research and picked the topic, though. This was a lot of stringing things together and adding experience.